Valérie Ducharme

For more than 15 years, Valérie Ducharme, French Canadian nail artist, has been sharing her passion with us. Entrepreneur at the age of 25, she sold her beauty salon 6 years later to devote herself to her craft and innovate in her art.

She is noticed in the field for her authenticity, her leadership and her boldness, and quickly became a reference and a source of inspiration for many. She embodies the proof that all our dreams can be realized and she encourages each individual to respect the image of their personality in order to become the best version of themselves.

In 2017, she founded the Académie Valérie Ducharme, and won the Teacher of the Year Award by Addict Quebec Magazine. Her school inspires creativity, development and self-improvement, and her line of products and items, carefully selected to help with your greatest creations, is available online at www.valerieducharme.com

Her art is described as colorful, innovative and avant-garde by most in the industry and after winning Toronto's Canada Nail Cup, Contessa's Canadian Nail Artist of the year, and The Mirror Award, she was able to earn her place as a judge in several provincial, national and international Nail Art competitions. Winner of the Nails Next Top Nail Artist season 5, presented by Nails Magazine, she amazed the audience with her talent and her creativity throughout the contest, which is described by many as the worlds biggest and longest nail art competition.

She has worked alongside the greatest artist of beauty and fashion, and we saw some of her creations at the New York fashion week, presented by CND World. Paris Hilton proudly wore Valérie's creations during the Blond show, in collaboration with Disney, and she is also the creator of the Finger Gloves that were used for the Libertine show, also in New York. It's no surprises that she is such a big influence for others. She is a passionate woman who wishes to share her joy, her creativity and her love of the trade, and to see everyone accomplish their dreams.
